About the Book

The book is a collection of the author's articles published in major African newspapers which include; The African Voice, The Trumpet, Sahara Reporters, The Nigerian Sun, The Nigerian Post, The Nigerian Moment, The Christian Voice, The Leader, The Nigerian Voice, Modern Ghana and the Cameroon Web.

The book discusses and highlights the political, socio-economic and sometimes violent struggles faced by the people of Nigeria and provides a detailed insight into the nations democratic evolution.

What were the challenges that faced the Jonathan administration? How did he grapple with them? And what did Buhari inherit from Jonathan? What are the expectations of Nigerians and how far are they comfortable that the Buhari administration would deliver on its electoral promises? The answers to these issues are the reason for this book.
