FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HIGH COURT RULING ON THE ACHIMOTA SCHOOL AND THE TWO RASTAFARIAN STUDENTS

The Ghana National Education Campaign Coalition has been following with keen interest, the myriad of issues that have surrounded the admission case between the Achimota School and two Rastafarian students.

On May 31, 2021, the Human Rights Division of the Accra High Court gave a ruling in favour of the students. To this end, GNECC wishes to urge the Ghana Education Service and the authorities of the Achimota School to respect the High Court ruling and admit the students.

We seek to reiterate our call for the Ministry of Education and the Ghana Education Service to call for a National Stakeholders dialogue to introduce National Guidelines that will govern all schools in Ghana and bring uniformity in the way matters of this nature are handled. This will ensure that the best interest of all Ghanaian children and other stakeholders are catered for.
